

AYLESFORD, ECCLES, BLUEBELL HILL, WALDERSLADE

February 22

Theft- Curry's, - Aylesford. 4 males stole around 20 laptops from the store estimated at £1000- £1300. CCTV Available.

Attempt theft- Sainsburys, Aylesford. A male in a white Ford transit was seen near the store trying to steal clothes from the bin nearby.

Theft- Marks and Spencer, Aylesford. A mother and daughter went to the store to buy some food and they left a handbag on their car seat. When they returned minutes later the car had been broken into and handbag was missing.

Attempt theft- Aylesford train station. 3 males were seen trying to steal a motorbike which was padlocked. They managed to start the bike but left when they saw a vehicle pull up beside them.

Theft- Sainsburys, Aylesford. A female worker alerted police when her driving card and two bank cards were stolen. Her handbag was hanging in the staff room at the time.

Criminal damage- A20, Aylesford. A female was driving home along the A20 towards West Malling when she heard a loud bang. Someone had thrown an object at her windscreen causing it to shatter. Possible CCTV nearby.

Shoplifting- Aldi, Hermitage lane, Aylesford. A female entered the store and stole a mirror and bedding worth £50. CCTV nearby.

Theft- Wrens kitchens, Aylesford. A female went into the store and left her mobile phone on the front desk as she tried to get a member of staff to talk to. When she returned her phone had been stolen. CCTV available.

Theft- Intermedical, Mill hall business estate, Aylesford. A manager for the company believed one of his staff cleaners had stolen a purse containing around £30. The cleaner also stole £1600 worth of handheld device terminals and chargers. CCTV was available.

Theft- DHL, Hermitage lane, Aylesford. A white Ford transit entered DHL logistics and stole various items from the skips. Incident was caught on camera.

ANTI- SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR

Nuisance youths on E scooters in Royal British Legion Village, Aylesford. 3 youths were being abusive to road users.

A nuisance motorbike was riding dangerously up and down Hermitage lane, Aylesford. Police arrived but the bike had already left. No details were given.